William's Dept. Store To Be Opened In Lemon Grove

Norman Kolkey, a former San Diego business man, will open a family clothing business in Lemon Grove as soon as the new building can be completed.

The building is at 7945 Broadway next to the new postoffice and the firm will be called William's Department Store.

Kolkey said nationally known brands of ready-to-wear for children, men and women would be carried.

Shirts, skirts, sweaters and blouses, sports and everyday wear will be stocked. Men's wear will include slacks and jackets, shirts and underwear. Children's wear will include items from layette through teen-age sizes. No shoes, men's suits or ladies' dresses will be stocked however with wash dresses being the exception.

Street Decorations For Christmas To Go Up Next Week

Lighted street decorations will be installed and in operation by November 30th the chamber of commerce said. Hunt and Johnson, the firm from which the chamber purchase the decorations promised to have the two electrical strings burning by that date.

Five non-electric strings will be hung December 2nd.

Most business houses will have their store fronts decorated with lights on Monday. They will start staying open evenings December 10th.

Union Thanksgiving Service Planned by 2 Local Churches

A community-wide worship service of thanksgiving has been planned jointly by the Lemon Grove Methodist Church and the First Congregational Church for Thanksgiving Day at 10:00 a.m. This traditional service is one to which members and friends of all churches as well as the community at large are invited.

This year, the service will be held at the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, 3205 Washington Street. The ministers of the two sponsoring churches, Reverend Cooke, Reverend Dan Apra, and Reverend Bruno Pueschel, will share in leading it.

A rather different kind of thanksgiving meditation will be given on the theme: "The Skeleton In the Closet." Special music will be provided. It is believed this serivce will have a special dramatic quality that will emphasize anew what we as Americans have to be thankful for.

The special offering to be received at this service will go to "S.O.S.", the Share Our Surplus program that aids the hungry peoples of the world. Through this plan, foods from our national store of surplus are distributed free among the millions of destitute persons overseas. Every dollar given can provide more than 100 pounds of life-giving food. Our government provides the food free. S.O.S. funds collected furnish the cost of distribution to speed the food on its way.

The community is cordially invited to share in this union service of thanksgiving, and through this means, to "Share Our Surplus" blessings with others.

Parks, Lights and Lower Costs Annexation Benefits Says San Diego Official

There are no bargain-basement municipal services, Tom Fletcher, assistant to San Diego's city manager told the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday.

Certain economies can result from annexation to the city of San Diego and that would reduce the total tax and service cost per family, he said.

Fletcher said that the average family would pay $312.12 if Lemon Grove annexed. The cost now, he said, is $330.74. This, he pointed out was in spite of a city tax rate of $1.63 which would be paid in addition to county tax.

Savings would come about, he said, from dissolution of the fire district and reduction of fire rate from 56c to 3c; withdrawal from the irrigation district and dropping the 27c of the tax rate; reduction of 7c by pulling out of the county library system; reduction of $13 a year in utilities charges by being part of an incorporated city, and reduction of $18 a year on trash and garbage collection. The figures are based on a study made by the city manager's office in 1955.

San Diego city would furnish water, fire protection, trash and garbage collection and a library, Fletcher said. He did not refer to the proposed utility rate schedule which would be based on distance rater than type of government.

Fletcher said the city would provide twenty-seven acres of parks and playgrounds if Lemon Grove annexed. 7 acres would be acquired adjacent Vista La Mesa school; 10 at San Miguel and 10 at the junior high. He said that street lights would be installed at intersections and that 24 hour police service would be given by 4 cars, 3 sergeants and 18 patrolmen.

Present outstanding bonds would remain against property in the annexed area, plus a proper share of the city's bonds. County School and Grossmont hospital bonds would remain an obligation of local property owners he said.

Broadway, said Fletcher, could be widened to full 150 feet from Imperial to Massachusetts. Service roads and parking area costs would be assessed against Broadway property owners. Centerlane improvements would be paid for by the City of San Diego. The city has three million dollars available for road projects," he said. A fifty million dollar backlog of jobs exists currently but where local participation is given, a high priority is assured.

John Dail was program chairman, Joe Cannizzaro presided. Program this week will be supplied by Miles Nagel, La Mesa City Councilman and former mayor. Nagel will tell of the advantages of Lemon Gove joining with La Mesa to obtain the benefits of a corporate city.

THINGS DOIN' & BREWIN'

About Civic Center

By DICK HENDERSON

Supervisors met in regular session on Tuesday the 13th, after a nice weekend holiday. Seems like a lot of Sunday holidays (legal), are celebrated on Monday, thus giving the hard-workin' county employes an extra day of rest. Things don't work that way for weekly newspapers. We gotta get the copy in on time, or the editor pulls out a coupla more hairs. And this week he wants to shorten the deadline by two hours, which means some way-before-daylight typing for Dick.

Tuesday's session was a dandy. Voices protesting the board's action rose in chorus from the audience, after speakers had their say. And after the board had granted the gravel pit at Hilldale, 1½ miles southeast of El Cajon, one of the speakers protesting the permit said "Most unjust decision I ever heard of."

We'll have to go back about 60 years to give you the whole picture. Y'see, Hilldale is a little valley nestling under the hill that separates El Cajon Valley from Jamacha Road, which outlines Dehesa Valley, close by. Dehesa is getting up among the quality folks, with a golf club and clubhouse an' everything. Things were not thus 60 years ago, when this reporter went to Meridian High School, the fore-runner of Grossmont High, when we had four classes in one room, on the unfinished second story of the then high and grammar grade school. One teacher, Professor Payne, was the principal and teacher of the four high school grades. I think there were two twelfth grade students, the Judson girls, who lived on Pepper Drive at the east end.

This reporter was in the ninth grade, rode a pony from Lakeside each day, over the hill through Winter Gardens—then brush with barley growing on the cleared flats, to the Bostonia Store, turn left a half mile to the school.

Hilldale has been struggling along all these years on short water supply and high taxes, with a couple of gravel pits in operation just south of the old school house. These gravel pits—one belonging to the county, have been on delinquent tax rolls at various times, with a tangle in ownership. The gravel is said to be of superior quality, and this fracas that developed when C. B. Grove applied for a permit to mine a hill that had still better gravel brought the present residents and owners of the picturesque little valley into the limelight in a big way.

The audience chamber was filled to the brim with Hilldalers, all wearing their fighting clothes. The San Diego County Farm Bureau got into the act with a written protest. Donald B. Smith, who announced to the board that he was an El Cajon attorney, represented the property owners, and that the gravel property was 1½ miles from El Cajon, "the most rapidly growing city in Southern California, U. S. A."—gosh, these El Cajon folks are sure loyal to their town—Donald Smith said the attorney for Mr. Grove had mentioned this gravel pit as being 14 miles from San Diego, but he didn't say anything about El Cajon, and the present residents have built nice homes and high hopes on the rise in value of their holdings, which the gravel pit would depreciate.

The planning commission granted a permit for the gravel pit previously, and that Mr. Abbey, attorney for C. B. Grove, applicant for a permit to operate, spoke briefly, outlined the plans of his client, said they would blacktop all roads used by them, sprinkle plenty of water and keep down the dust. "We don't like dust any better than anybody else," Abbey said.

Anyway, Mr. Abbey agreed, for his clients, to run a respectable, dust and annoyance-free gravel pit on the 465-922 plot, excepted but accepted the planning commish's ruling about the westerly 400 feet, and turned the mike over to the opposition. A big picture of the property affected was shown on the magnetic map—it took Dr. Miller and two helpers to get the clamps to stick—and Abbey pointed out the pit lines with his finger, instead of using a pointer.

When the opposition speakers took over, after Donald Smith spoke, the fur began to fly. Miss Henderson, Edith or Ethel (there were two sisters and neither identified herself before speaking, but they have been living in Hilldale for a long time). The first Miss Henderson said she was a school teacher (at Hoover High, it developed, and she taught at Hilldale school for a time). Her sister, the other Miss Henderson, spoke along the same lines of depreciation of values and ruin to the valley's prospects for $30,000 homes.

Mr. Bond, another property owner, whose land is close to the proposed pit, spoke at length, but so low we couldn't hear him. He wore a hearing aid, so he heard himself.

Supervisor Gibson announced that he was in favor of granting the permit, Supervisor James Robbins thought the need for gravel for highways surpassed the damage to building sites, said he was in favor. Dave Bird said he would vote no, as did Dean Howell, who "is for the people." (Applause.)

Finally, Gibson moved to grant the permit, Robbins seconded, somebody moved to lay it on the Record, Hi-Fi Firm To Open Here Next Week

That rabid group of consumers, lumped here as record and hi-fi fans, will come into their own next week when Leo Cochran together with Frank McGrath, open their Record Den at 7921 Broadway near the postoffice.

In addition to being enthusiasts for their own products, the men are both Lemon Grove residents. "We decided to put a stop to the need for going out of Lemon Grove to get records," the men said.

Cochran, an industrial engineering tool and instrument jobber, lives at 1519 Dupont Street. McGrath, who will manage the Record Den, lives at 1550 Dupont.

Cochran's Record Den will handle approximately twenty recording labels covering popular, classical and semi-classical, LP, hi-fi, blues, western, children and religious type records. Cochran said that the normal stock would be 10,000 records. Five listening booths will be in operation.

The firm will also handle accessories for phonographs and records. A section of the shop will house radios, record playing equipment and hi-fi sets.

Cochran, a native San Diegan formed Cochran and Co. which he still heads. The firm handles specialized items for industrial accounts. Sale of pneumatic tools, cutting tools and tooling components, repair and calibration service on precision instruments, optical tooling and the like are some of the activities of the Cochran firm. Cochran is also chairman of the S.D. Chapter American Society of Tool Engineers. McGrath, a former Brooklynite, is an ex-Marine.

Door prize drawings will be held in conjunction with the opening event. Winners will be announced Saturday December 15.

Bill Paul to Head This Year's Polio Drive

Area March of Dimes campaign this year will be sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club, Dr. Robert Swenson, club president announced.

Bill Paul, official of the U. S. National Bank in Lemon Grove will head the area activity. Bob Wilson and Jack Dumas will assist Paul. All are members of the local Kiwanis Club.

The drive will get under way in January and funds will be raised to meet the approximately $20,000 a month hospitalization expenses being borne currently by the county chapter. Half of the funds raised will go to the national organization, the rest is spent in the county, Paul said.

No quota has been set but last year $6,196.43 was raised under the didection of Tom Farrow, a representative of the Lemon Grove High 12 Club, a Masonic organization.

A workshop was held last week in San Diego to orient the workers.

Father, Son Make Hole In One Just A Week Apart

The older generation isn't through yet, but it took a golf club to prove it!

On November 6, Charles Montgomery, who operates the liquor store and delicatessen at 7779 Broadway, sank a hole in one at Flying Hills.

Just eight days later his father, Ed Montgomery, stepped up to the 14th tee at Singing Hills course, took out his wedge and popped an ace into the hole 120 yards away.

Playing with the elder Montgomery was the son who shot the hole-in-one the week before, and Jack Sanders, the town's hardwareman.

"I'll make a hole-in-one every time Charley does," Ed said. Sanders, who took a four on the par three hole, just shook his head. Charles took a three.

The Montgomerys are finding it dificult to get other golfers who normally make up their playing circle to make the customary nickle-a-hole wager.

Ed said that his ability to make a hole in one came primarily from his sweet, even disposition. "I have a reputation as being the most gracious loser in Lemon Grove," he said.

He left notes indicating he intended to commit suicide.

The Dimmer View

By MAX GOODWIN

A rather sombre note comes to this desk from Stan Jones, news editor for the National Association of Manufacturers at a time when joy and festive spirit of Thanksgiving should reign.

He reminds us of the sad plight of Stanley Otten of New York, who lost his job because of his religious beliefs and his year losing battle points the way for potential control of the church by union organizations.

One of America's most precious freedoms—guaranteed by the very first sentence in the Bill of Rights—is the freedom of religion. Every American is constitutionally assured of the right to worship God in the way he sees fit.

At least, that's the way things should be in this land of ours.

But that first sentence in the Bill of Rights is a very hollow one for Theodore Otten of Staten Island, New York.

They are hollow words also to hundreds of other working men all over the country who are being forced to choose between their religious beliefs and their means of earning a livelihood.

For 26 years, Mr. Otten worked for the Staten Island Transit Company. In September, 1951, the railroad and a union, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, entered into an agreement providing for the union shop. In other words, railroad and union agreed that hereafter every member of the bargaining unit was required to assume and maintain leadership in the union.

Union Member

For much of his working life, Mr. Otten had been a member of the union, as well as several other societies of various kinds. But in June, 1948, he had decided to join a religious group known as the Plymouth Brethren. In accord with the principles of that faith, he resigned from all other organizations—including his union. It has since been determined that Mr. Otten was acting in complete good faith and was sincere in his religious beliefs.

After the union-shop clause was negotiated, there were a number of discussions between railroad management and union management about Mr. Otten's lack of union membership. Several hearings and appeals took place, but to no avail.

Otten Fired

In September, 1952, the railroad was forced to discharge him.

Since that time, he has carried his gallant fight through the courts, including the Supreme Court, but so far has not been able to obtain reinstatement. And his chances are pathetically slim.

His situation is a serious one. He has spent the major part of his working life in railroad work. It is difficult for him to obtain work in another industry because of his specialized skill. Since the railroad industry is now almost completely unionized—on a compulsory basis—he cannot hope to find work in that industry . . . unless he is willing to give up the worship of God in the way that he chooses.

It isn't necessary, of course, to agree with Theodore Otten's choice of religion or the wisdom of its tenets to realize that his Constitutional rights have been trampled upon.

And if it can happen to him, why not to you?

Rock Hounds on Trip To Arizona

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Q. Harvey, 3973 Quarry Road, are spending a couple of weeks in Arizona pickin' up rocks and recuperating from the recent political campaign. Besides "politicking," Paul is a machinist, has a shop at 7160 Broadway Extension, Lemon Grove. Mrs. Harvey is also interested in mineral formations, has many beautiful specimens in her collection, some with gold streaks.

Rock hounds are said to have some desert rat blood, that impels them to seek the wide-open spaces and look for "color." Some have a specially equipped truck with camping equipment ready and a winch on the front end to pull them out of a hole or a sandy place far out on the desert. Sure, they have an extra supply of water along in barrels on the side. This time of year is good on the desert wastes, Old Sol tempers his rays and the nights are nice and cold.

We hope Paul and his Missus locate the Pegleg Mine, or some such—D. H.

State Engineer Tells Council State Cannot Put In Sidewalks

State Engineer William Calland told the Spring Valley Coordinating Council last week that a law prohibits the state from installing sidewalks. The question came about when members asked about walks for school children who had to attend the Spring Valley Junior High School and the temporary Bancroft School.

There were over 20 people who turned out for the meeting due to a phone call campaign by vice-chairman Mrs. Thelma Lewis. As principal of Bancroft School, Bill Schell put it, "It was a dynamic meeting."

Interest in the safety of Spring Valley school children is running high. Wally Johnson, safety chairman of the Spring Valley Lions Club and the Casa de Oro Civic Association told of those organizations' efforts toward the safety problem, particularly along Campo Road and near the Casa de Oro School.

Principal Bill Schell said there will be a great need for cross walks when the new Bancroft School starts operating. The engineer said that will come under the jurisdiction of the county and suggested that the county be written several letters on the subject.

Mrs. Eileen Smith and Bill Doughman of the SV Chamber of Commerce told how the chamber and the PTA had been able to get a walk along Bancroft Drive from the school to Olive Drive.

Regarding Campo Road, the state engineer said there are no immediate plans to widen that road, and no funds. Anyhow, he pointed out such plans would soon be outdated when the freeway is completed.

And speaking of speed along Campo, the engineer said the state is now conducting an extensive check.

It was finally brought out by Gilbert Ray of Casa de Oro that the state has 10 or 12 feet along Campo Road from Bonita to Conrad Drive. He asked the engineer if the state would permit a walk to be put along there for the children if the work was done by a civic group. The engineer said he thought the state would grant that but he didn't think the state would loan any equipment for the work.

It was suggested that a committee be formed to study the situation. However, at the end of the meeting no appointment of a committee had taken place.

Junior College to Be in El Cajon When Built

If the Grossmont High School District builds a junior college it will be in El Cajon.

Purchase of 33 acres near Madison and Fourth Street in El Cajon was authorized last week by the Grossmont board of trustees.

The land will cost approximately $4,000 an acre and adjoins 49 acres purchased in 1955.

Lewis F. Smith, Grossmont High School District superintendent, said that land purchased now would avoid future higher costs if a junior college district is formed. Creation of such a district would have to be voted upon by residents of the district.

SERMON DENOUNCES NECROMANCY, MESMERISM, AND HYPNOTISM

The gulf between humanly mental systems and Christlike thinking will be brought out in the Christian Science churches on Sunday. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy these statements are included in the sermon: "No person is benefited by yielding his mentality to any mental despotism or malpractice." "When Christ changes a belief of sin or of sickness into a better belief, then belief melts into spiritual understanding, and sin, disease, and death disappear." (pp. 375, 442).

Changes in Your Social Security

Important changes have been made in Federal Old-Age and Survivors program as a result of Social Security Amendments of 1956.

This opening article provides a summary of the three most important changes designed to strengthen this federal insurance system which provides partial protection against loss of earned income upon the retirement or death and now, under certain condtions, upon the total disability of the worker.

Effective November of this year, benefits became payable to women when they reach age 62. Survivors benefits for widows and, in certain cases, mothers of deceased workers, start with a payment for November which will be received in December. The amount of the monthly payment will be the same at age 65 as under the old law. Beginning with November 1956, retired insured women workers and wives of retired insured workers can start getting benefit payments at age 62. In these cases, the amount is less than the amount under the old law.

A change has been made in the total disability provision in the law. While the "disability freeze" provision which protects the social security insurance rights of workers is continued, monthly cash benefit payments beginning with July 1957 will be made to totally disabled workers when they reach age 50. Beginning with January 1957 monthly benefits are now payable to a disabled unmarried child, even after the child has reached age 18, if the child was disabled before he reached 18 and is the dependent of a retired or deceased parent, step-parent, or adopting parent who is eligible for old-age insurance benefits under social security, or was insured for the purpose of survivors benefits at the time of his or her death.

Other important changes in the law affect farmers, employed and or self-employed. While there have been no changes in old-age and survivors insurance benefit rates, there are changes in the way benefits can be figured and the time necessary to become insured for payments. The latter provision is of special importance to persons whose kind of work is now covered by social security as of January 1, 1956. Newly-covered groups are lawyers, dentists, chiropractors, veterinarians, naturopaths, osteopaths, and optometrists. Other recent legislation provides for the extension of social security on a permanent contributory basis after 1956 to members of the armed services on active duty.

For further information contact the Social Security Administration district office, 1196 Broadway, in San Diego.

San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce to Sponsor Poinsettia Queen Contest

Entries are now open for the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce's Poinsettia Queen contest, according to Robert Shipman, contest chairman. Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 27, married or single, and should make application with the Jaycee office, 947 Columbia, BE 4-4197.

The Poinsettia Queen will be selected from finalists invited to the Jaycee's Poinsettia Ball to be held at the LaFayette Hotel December 8. The queen will reign at the ball and preside as official hostess at the annual Poinsettia Bowl service championship football game on December 16.

An elimination contest will be held November 29, at which time the Jaycees will select the finalists after judging all entries in evening gowns. Entries must be submitted by 12 noon November 27.

This contest is open to all girls in the San Diego County. A snapshot must be sent in to the junior chamber before the deadline.

La Mesa Writer's Club Officers Have Difficult Month

The past month has been a difficult one for three officers of the La Mesa Writer's Club.

First off, Eddie Freeman, historian, was in an auto accident and taken to the county hospital. He has been there for several weeks due to complications, according to a recent report.

Then Mrs. Eleanor Smith of La Mesa, the club treasurer, was in a serious auto accident in Los Angeles. She sustained a broken pelvis and several broken ribs as the result. She has been in a hospital at Norwalk for several days.

Fifteen year old Dan Heiserman, son of the club's secretary, Mrs. Lois Heiserman of Lemon Grove, had to be taken to Paradise Valley Sanitarium for an intestinal operation last week. He since has returned home.

However, the L. M. Writer's Club plans to meet next Monday, November 26 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forster Couts, 7915 La Mesa Blvd., La Mesa. Main order of business will be a report by the by-laws committee. Reading of manuscripts and a workshop will follow. Guests of members will be welcome.

Will Remain in Kansas City Indefinitely

Mrs. J. William Clark, 3915 Bancroft Street, Spring Valley, will remain in Kansas City at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Mary Bramble, for an indefinite time. When Mrs. Clark left by air several weeks ago it was her intention to bring her mother back with her to recuperate in Spring Valley's balmy climate, next to "the Best Climate on Earth," according to Tony Sonka, who has claimed that distinction for Lemon Grove for lo, these many years.

Mrs. Bramble is still too ill to be moved, and Mrs. Clark will remain in Kansas City until the doctor says she can fly to Spring Valley, which we hope will be soon.—D. H.

Mrs. Dreher Returns From Hospital

Mrs. Jordan S. Dreher, 4491 Pomona Avenue, Lemon Grove, is home after a stay in the hospital, where she underwent an operation for a slipped disk in her spine. Mrs. Dreher is still weak but under the careful nursing of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Elliott, is slowly improving, and will regain her usual good health in a few weeks.

Henry Langhorst To Re-open Sweetwater Dining Room

Henry Langhorst, well known San Diego restaurateur, reopened the Sweetwater Dining Room at Joe Eaton's La Mesa Airport, he announced this week.

The restaurant, a rambling, homey place, has been operated as a dining room-cocktail lounge on an off and on basis during the past two years. Extensive remodeling is currently under way.

Langhorst sold his famed restaurant at Harbor Drive and Hawthorn Street in San Diego early this year. It is now known as Lubach's.

The establishment will carry the name of Henry Langhorst's Sweetwater Dining Room and will be open evenings only except Saturday and Sunday. It is located at Sweetwater Spring Blvd. and Jamacha Road.

She was Miss Mary D. Pritchard, 2266 Albatross St., and was the sister of Mrs. Russell Case, 8474 Broadway.

'THANKS FOR YOUR VOTE' SAYS ASSEMBLY CANDIDATE SHEARER

William K. "Bill" Shearer, Republican nominee for Assemblyman in the 77th District, this week released the following statement:

"I want to take this opportunity to express my deep and sincere thanks to the people in this district who voted for me in Tuesday's election. No man can receive a greater honor than votes of the people for a public office.

"I am also supremely grateful to my many hundreds of friends who labored so tirelessly in my behalf throughout the district. More than a little responsible for our fine showing was the support of the Lemon Grove Republican Club. Without such loyal and constant help, the outstanding vote achieved by our campaign would have been impossible.

"May I also commend this newspaper for its fair and objective coverage of the 77th District race.

"Ours was a fine campaign. There is nothing in the campaign or in the outcome of which we need be ashamed. I am sure it brought to the people of our district an awareness of some of their problems, and that as a result of our effort we have a more watchful and informed electorate."

Mrs. R. A. Knapp, 4-H Leader, on Road to Recovery

Mrs. Robert A. Knapp, 6997 San Miguel Avenue, who has been on the list of very sick folks since the end of September, is making slow but sure recovery from the bite of a black widow spider.

The Knapp family had a picnic for four, Maxine, Bob, Patricia and Mike, at La Jolla Shores the last Friday in September. Maxine was bitten, suffered severe pain till Monday noon, finally taken to a doctor by her husband, who almost had to use force to get the lady to admit the necessity of medical care.

The doctor was amazed at Mrs. Knapp's having delayed visiting him, diagnosed the bite as that of the sometimes fatal black widow spider, employed surgery at once. The flesh around the wound was found to be dead, and was removed in a chunk. Veins surrounding the wound were a vivid red, indicating blood poison. Suction removed some of the poison, but the wound had been neglected too long for complete extraction of the poison.

The doctor gave strict orders to his patient to stay in bed for two months. Maxine, still not realizing the seriousness of her condition, went to a gathering of ladies "because a promise is a promise" and she had promised the hostess to come.

This little party caused trouble, as "keep off your feet" was one of the physician's mandates, more or less obeyed.

Mrs. Knapp's illness was almost fatal. At one time she was given little hope of recovery. Later, Bob Knapp was able to announce "we think we'll save her," which was the first intimation to some of Maxine's friends that she was in imminent danger.

Happily, the lady is making progress towards complete recovery, is allowed to sit up at intervals, but the "keep off your feet" order still holds.

So, if any of y'all ladies get bitten by any kind of a bug and the pain persists, don't be bashful. Consult your doctor, and obey his orders.

The bite of the black widow spider and that of a rattlesnake have similar lethal effect, and should be so regarded. The action on the system of the victim is similar, and needs prompt medical attention.—D. H.

Sports Roundup . . . Helix's undefeated, untied Metro League champs are awaiting their "battle of the giants" this Friday night in Aztec Bowl against City League co-champ, Hoover. . . . Two weeks ago Helix crushed Chula Vista, 52-6. High scorer was junior halfback Bill Ernest who tallied on a punt return for 70 yards and two passes from qb Bob Schultz good for 58 and 64 yards. Fullback Dan Spinazzola scored two TD's on 19 and 12 yard runs while tackle Dave Conner recovered a fumble and rambled 50 yards to pay dirt; end Gail Barsotti snagged an enemy aerial and whooshed 46 yards to the glory stripes; and guard Frank Ferguson blocked a Spartan punt and recovered it in their end zone, good for six points. Schultz converted once, Gary Dunn three times. . . . The BULLETIN and REVIEW are currently engaged in a series of sports interviews with local football players. Ivy League . . . Styles, like manner of speech, change from year to year. The coolest in fads at present is the Ivy League styles. A regular guy can be seen in a crewcut, Caesar or flattop hair style. The shirts consist of flannels, pendletons, sweaters, McGregors or Ivy League shirts with a button on the back of the collar. Tan or blue peggers, buckle pants and chinos are the popular bottom wear. Desert boots and loafers, bucks and saddles are the footwear fads. The I. L. hats are nice too. The word's out to go Ivy League and be "cool."

Dis 'n Dat . . . Quips on Presley, Lawton's, and magazines. . . . Banning Elvis Presley in San Diego and other cities is a good demonstration of public stupidity on the parts of some of the town officials. That being the case they should close the Hollywood theatre. You can't lick the Presley rock 'n roll fad, so you'd better join it or stay neutral or be engulfed in a tide of angry fans. . . . To Open Furniture Store

Ken L. Holmes, a long-time furniture and appliance dealer will open a furniture store in Lemon Grove December 1st. It will be at 7769 Broadway, the former location of the First National Bank.

Holmes said that the store would carry all of the nationally-known brands of furniture such as Kroeler, Shaun and others. All brands of appliances will be carried.

Holmes and his wife Barbara have operated the Harbor Furniture Co. in National City for the past five years. "We have so many customers in the La Mesa, Spring Valley and Lemon Grove area that we decided that the second store in our growing chain should be where we could best serve these customers," he said.

"We guarantee to sell merchandise for less than the so-called ship's stores," Holmes said. The "legitimate discount" houses and firm will have a door prize event in connection with the grand opening and several major prizes will be awarded. In addition to the drawing, free gifts and souvenirs will be given during the opening event.

JOHN BEIGHLE TO PLAY OWN COMPOSITION AT STATE CONCERT

Paul Beighle, San Diego State music student, will play his own composition in a free concert Tuesday, Nov. 27, as a pledge of a national men's music honorary, Phi Mu Alpha.

The eight pledges, selected for their musical ability and scholarship are required to perform in a public concert. The program will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the music auditorium.

A percussion major, Beighle wrote "Dialogue for Two Percussionists" and will play it with John Will. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Beighle, 1640 Skyline Drive. As a member of the San Diego State Symphony Orchestra, he will play in the college production of Handel's "Messiah," to be sung by the 171-voice College Chorus Dec. 9.

Corrections and 4-H Items

We wish to correct a couple of statements made in our story of Key Awards on Nov. 3 at Youth Center.

First—Mrs. Mathewson is leader of Spring Valley 4-H group, not Mrs. Cosby, as stated. Mrs. Cosby is assistant to Mrs. R. A. Knapp, leader of Lemon Grove group. Our apalogies to the ladies for mis-stating the facts.

The Lemon Grove members have started their 1957 campaign for more and better beef, mutton, and hog meat.

Mike Knapp has two calves that he will raise—he has named the best one Dick—and Dennis Tristram has a mama pig who delivered ten piglets a week ago. Dennis will sell the little pigs. They are "meat type" breed, almost guaranted to win a purple ribbon. See him for details.

New Projects

Electricity is a new project for 4-H'ers to study. The electric company provides speakers for classes and instructions in the rudiments of electricity and "fixing" appliances that go wrong. The girls are taking considerable interest in this course. Patricia Knapp said, in respones to a remark, "Your husband will fix it for you," "Yes—after I ask him several times and he puts me off. I want to be able to fix it myself." Pat is not married as yet, but we hear rumors. Somebody has been telling her things about how we husbands behave.

Fire House to Be Headquarters for M. D. March

The fire house on Central Ave. has been designated as field headquarters for the 1956 March for Muscular Dystrophy, December 6 and 7, Captain Ray Carmody said.

The announcement followed a meeting at which final plans for the campaign were outlined.

"Lemon Grove firemen, due to their knowledge of city geography, will supervise grouping of area teams in the door-to-door canvass," Carmody said, "and will be on hand for assistance and advice throughout the drive."

The local drive is part of a nationwide campaign conducted by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., against the crippling disease from which 200,000 Americans, most of them children, suffer. Through generous public support, MDAA has established a national network of clinics for dystrophics, has earmarked $3,200,000 toward an Institute for Muscle Disease and sponsors nearly $4,000,000 worth of research seeking a cause and cure for the mysterious disease.

HELIX STUDENTS FORM JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT FIRM

Pacific Telephone manager Bill Parker and Tel-a-Pen sales manager Penny Evans compare products. The Junior Achievement desk pen is a small scale model of the Pacific Company instrument.

A group of Helix High School students have recently entered into the telephone business in the San Diego area.

Members of the Junior Achievement organization, they have formed the Tel-a-Pen Company, sponsored by Pacific Telephone.

The company lists 14 members, all students at Helix, Chula Vista and Mission Bay High Schools.

After organizing the company the members have all been busy selling stock in their corporation. This financing will enable them to go into production on their product, a ball-point pen with a small scale model telephone as a base. "The pen sets will come in a variety of colors," according to Helix sophomore Penny Evans, who is sales manager of the business.

Pacific Telephone advisors are lending a hand in getting the new business off to a good start. "We are here to help if we are needed, but the business is run by its members," local advisor Bill Parker said.

Under the Junior Achievement Charter the company functions as a business in every detail for one school year. Tel-a-Pen must go out of business next May.

A national movement, Junior Achievement provides an opportunity for youngsters to receive valuable business background. This knowledge has been proven a valuable asset for good citizenship as well as an educational aid.

Fiesta Float Picked For Roses Parade At Pasadena

January 1, 1957, a Lemon Grove 16-year-old high school student will furnish the design for the Fiesta del Pacifico float, entered in the big annual event.

Miss Betty Long, 2202 Berry Street, who suggested the design, won a design contest. She received an award as one of two winners in city-county competition.

San Diego's "First Fiesta del Pacifico" will be the theme of the San Diego entry in the Rose Parade. The design is described by Ronnie Morse of San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce as a Spanish fan of red and white roses will be at the rear of the float. Animated Spanish dancers of multi-colored flowers will be in life size. They will be in front of the fan, doing the Mexican Hat Dance.

A San Diego beauty queen, yet to be selected, will be placed in the center of a huge white rose formation. The design is described as "tentative." Morse said construction costs may eliminate some of the details. A painting of the design will be mailed to Tournament of Roses officials in Pasadena.

Grossmont High Will Compete at All Western Band Review

The annual All-Western Band Review, in which high school bands from various parts of Southern California participate, will be held in Long Beach November 24.

Grossmont Marching Band, with 91 musicians tootling in unison and with verve, will "step off" at 2:30 and play their way for two miles down the ocean front.

Grossmont has been judged the winner three times in a row, but due to a change in rules, the first win doesn't count toward the necessary three wins to keep the Mayor's Trophy permanently. So we are all pulling for Grossmont.

Three chartered buses will leave Grossmont High School at 7 a.m. on the 24th, with a truck to carry instruments, and will arrive in Long Beach about noon and get lined up for the parade.

After contest between the various bands has been settled by the judges, the band members will have dinner and spend the evening on the Pike. Leaving at 11 on the return trip the cavalcade usually stops at Sea Shore Cafe, in San Clemente, where very good eats are dispensed amid nice surroundings. The members and many parents make the trip to Long Beach an annual affair. About 110 persons are expected to fill the chartered buses, others using private cars. The assemblage gets home about 3 a.m.

El Cajon Valley High School, successor to part of Grossmont's band, will compete again this year. Benton Minor, director, has high hopes of his boys and girls winning. "El Cajon Band is stronger than last year. The kids have good spirits, and they are going to shoot for sweepstakes," he said.

Helix High School will not send a band to Long Beach this year. The school's program calls for a pageant, "The American Heritage," being held in Grossmont Auditorium this week, according to Daniel Lewis, head of music department.—D. H.

SPRING VALLEY GIRL IS RECENT BRIDE

The U. S. Navy Hospital Chapel was the scene for a lovely wedding ceremony last Sunday, November 11, when William G. Flippen claimed Shirley Ann Jagosz of Spring Valley as his bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was ivory satin covered with white chantilly lace, the veil caught up by seeeded pearls. Her jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift from the groom. Her handkerchief was an heirloom of her great grandmother.

Mrs. Flippen is a graduate of Rosary High School and attended San Diego Junior College.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Thelma Destautel. Bridesmaids were Eleanor Gaddy and Gloria Norton. Best man was Jerry Destautel.

Ushers were Jerry Norton and F. Kronquist; ring bearer, Jon Guilmet. Miss Sandy Desantel carried the bride's veil.

The bride's mother chose rose chantilly lace, while the groom's mother chose grey lace over pink.

The reception which followed was held at the home of the bride's parents, Carthay Circle, Spring Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Flippen are honeymooning to Atlanta, Georgia, where the groom will be stationed with the Navy.

Spends Weekend At Las Vegas

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richardson, 1391 Skyline Drive, Monterey Heights, spent a weekend at Las Vegas the fore part of November. On returning, they tried to get to the harness races at Los Angeles, but heavy traffic held them up for three and a half hours, and the last race was being trotted while they were endeavoring to get through Pasadena in a traffic jam. They decided to spend the balance of Mr. Richardson's vacation in their lovely Lemon Grove (Monterey Heights IS in Lemon Grove, you know), home.—D. H.

Indian Nation Formed For Area Tribes

An Indian nation, yet to be named, was formed Monday night to cover Indian Guide activities in Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and Casa de Oro areas.

George Hendrickson of Casa de Oro was named chief. Max Goodwin of Lemon Grove assistant chief; Ralph Meier tallykeeper; Arthur Thivierge, wampum bearer and Bill Rau, medicine man. The latter three are Spring Valley residents.

Induction of new members and tribes will be held January 6th.

table, and that brought Austin into the matter. He appealed to Bertram McLees, legal advisor, "If a motion is before the house, can it be superceded by a motion to delay?" and Bert said no, so the motion to grant the permit got a three to two vote, and it was so ordered.

Then the boos commenced, with a statement from the school-teaching Miss Henderson, "a miscarriage of justice, worst I ever heard of."

Then was where this reporter got called down. "You a reporter —give us a good story? What paper?" When we told them, there were sniffs. Finally the ladies said we didn't belong to their branch of the family.

Gosh, if we had thought of it in time we would have told the ladies to argue with the highway commission's right-of-way men, if they wanted something tough. The highway boys just condemn your property and make you hire a lawyer at $50 and $15.00 costs just to answer the complaint. Then they monkey a year more while you sweat it out, paying taxes on your original land for a year or more with no reduction for what the state grabbed. These folks would think the supervisors were southern gentlemen in comparison. —D. H.)

It was past 12:20 when the verdict was announced, and we were glad to get to the basement and a ham sandwich, pie and coffee, 60 cents.

Highlanders Battle Hoover In SCIF Playoffs Friday

By Bob Turnbull

Friday night, Aztec Bowl on Montezuma Mesa will be packed to capacity to watch two southland football powerhouses knock helmets in the first round of the SCIF playoffs. Helix High School and the Cardinals from Hoover High School do battle up the ladder to the SCIF championship.

Last Friday night Helix tromped second place Sweetwater, 21-0 on the green 'n gray gridiron to more than clinch the undefeated championship of the Metro league. Fleet halfback Bill Ernest scored two TD's, again this week on aerial strikes from qb Bob Schultz. The scores were on passes of 45 and 29 yards. Ron Palermo riped off six yards to add to his point collection. Monterey Heights' pride 'n joy Gary Dunn, kicked three placements.

Hoover wound up the year by defeating Kearney, 40-13. They are co-champs with San Diego High School. Other scores saw Chula Vista slightly upset Mira Costa, 14-13 while El Cajon tipped Grossmont, 14-6.

Attention Helix gridders! Hoover can be had! And so can all your opponents after that up the road to the championship. You guys are good, you should have the confidence to know that! A swelled head won't mean victory but the determination to be best will. On paper Hoover is no better than you and you are no better than the Hockerville men. But on the field is a different tale, that matter of the game battle will be settled on the team wanting to win the most. This is your year, the last year before you split up. It's now or never. What'll it be? Good luck and good sportsmanship to you!

Robert Fetters Ready for Fleet Duty

Robert O. Fetters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Fetters of 7815 Alton Dr., completed recruit training this month at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

A graduation, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the 'raw recruit' is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

My composure did you rattle
I almost blew my top
After reading all your prattle
About us gals who wield the mop.

You insinuate it's just a fib
When we say we've worked all day
I wonder if you'd be so glib
If you'd match our work outlay.

It's true we like our coffee break
Sure, we try to take our naps
For they are vital for our nerves' sake
Thus we live longer than you chaps.

Our work is never done, it's true
From morn until it's night
But there'll always be guys like you
Who try to minimize our plight.

Sincerely
Barbara Cohenour

Dear Mrs. Cohenour:

Several other ladies got perturbed enough to give me advice and guidance, together with some criticism because I suggested that the housewife's work day should be no longer than three hours of actual work.

—The Editor

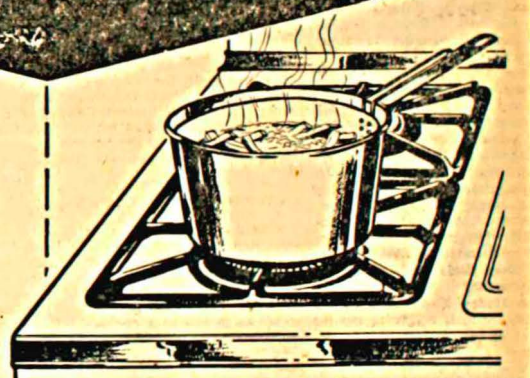
BURNER with a BRAIN*



Heat in the Pan Controls the flame Automatically

The Burner with a Brain is a NEW automatic feature which works like your oven-heat-control. The sensing element (thermostat) in the center of the top burner presses against the pan . . . does your temperature watching for you.

You simply dial your regular recipe temperature for the food being prepared. The sensing element turns the flame up or down automatically so your foods never cook faster or slower than they should . . . and they can't burn.

*Top Burner Temperature Control available on both built-in and standard type gas ranges.

NEW Gas Ranges combine "automation" with speed . . .

Just set it and forget it when you cook on the Burner with a Brain. Once its control dial is set, the temperature won't creep up or down. It is constant, steady and reliable. When cooking french-fries, for instance, it prevents over-heating the grease . . . thus no splattering — less cleaning to do. You can even go about other tasks, assured that uniform temperature will be maintained. Trade for a new gas range now — "the range that thinks!"

H-H-S humbly presents in HippoScope, Universalphonic sound and eye-pealing color their newest spectacle, an education musical "Bonzziiiii," the story of romance, dancing and singing during Helix Freshman Orientation Day.

Not to date in the history annuals of filmland could you find a greater array of producers, technicians and stars to make this exciting film.

The original book was written by Victor Reisel and Max "Walter Winchell" Goodwin. Music is by Cole Porter, Alan Oldfield and Dave Brubeck. Technical advisors were Melvin Grant, San Diego Zoo, Alcoholic Anonymous and the combined efforts of the Lemon Grove and La Mesa police departments. Choreography was staged by Sue Bledsoe, Jackie Gleason and Kathy Martinosky. Special dancing efforts for "Bonzziiii" were originated by the newly reorganized Helix Songleaders Society of "Dimples" Dahlquist, "Legs" Lewis, "Peaches" Phillips and Marilyn Monclure.

The entire confused mess was directed by that man who gave you such screen sensations as "Suspense at Sonka's Saltflats," "Death at the Crosswalk of No Stop Lights" and "Rock Around Bueno's." That noted director is, of course, "Schwendy" Schwendiman. Producers were the Lemon Grove Kiwanis, Tijuana Plumbers Association, Bluebirds of Monterey Heights, Chamber of Commerce Rest Home (psycho ward division) and Howard Hughes, who between them managed to assemble the following names:

Dennis Hopper, Hollywood's hottest newlyweds, Rin Tin Tin and his wife Lassie, Dick Cunningham, Francis X. Bushman, Jerry Doughtery, Bolivar Shagnasty, Dixie Dugan, Elvis Presley and Jimmy Dean.

The story is to do with two entering freshmen. The guy is from Spring Valley, the girl from Lemon Grove. They meet and fall in love but learn that the Helix High School Martial Laws will rigidly enforce capital punishment in couples go steady. They decide to take the risk and excitement builds when they are discovered sharing lunches and are chased and caught by the Highland Secret Police. When caught one must sacrifice his life; he being a gentleman, lets her go first.

The dances, very cleverly inserted by Sue, Jackie and Kathy are most breathtaking during the scenes of "Lunch Time in Cellblock Nine" and the "Race to the Buses." One newspaper quote from the Highland Fling, the nation's number one scandal sheet, is (quote) "the revolution at the end of this movie is really earth-shaking in glorious black 'n blue" (un-quote).

The theme songs from "Bonzziiii" are "Rang Rang," "Now You Has Jazz, Comrade" and "Between Heaven and Lemon Grove."

Now playing at your two neighborhood theatres! The Jove theatre on Imbeerial and the Space Drive-in theatre off of Boardway. Cast of trillions!—B. T.

Trailer Court Tenants Dress Dolls for Salvation Army Gifts to Youngsters

More than 30 temporary residents of Lemon Grove, all the ladies living in trailers in Costa Bella Villa, in fact, are busily engaged in dressing dolls for the annual Citadel, a worthy program sponsored by the Salvation Army.

Each year the Citadel distributes food and toys to 4,000 San Diego families with children. The dolls are purchased with money donated to the "kettles," and hundreds of little girls are made happy for many months.

The dolls are of large size, of good material, and would retail, at present prices, at better than $5. A complete wardrobe of handmade clothes is furnished with each doll.

The ladies in Costa Bella Villa, spearheaded by Mrs. Van Brederode, and with the enthusiastic assistance of every other lady in the villa, are busy making doll dresses. Each trailer has at least a half-dozen dolls in various stages of undress. The ladies make the necessary dresses and accessories, every piece carefully fitted with snaps so the recipient can dress and undress her "baby" at will.

Truly a grand project for all concerned.—D. H.

Introduction of San Miguel Teachers Completes Series

In this last of a series of articles on new Lemon Grove teachers, readers are introduced to teachers of San Miguel School. Six teachers new to Lemon Grove and in some cases new to the profession help make up the large staff. Ben I. Schei is principal.

Miss Alice Milne, who graduated from Lemon Grove school and Grossmont High School, is no stranger to this community. She is teaching a first grade at San Miguel. Last year she did her student teaching at Lemon Grove before graduating from San Diego State College. While earning her B.A. degree there she was affiliated with CSTA. Miss Milne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Milne, have long been classified employees of the school district.

A second Lemon Grove resident and local graduate is Mrs. Charlotte Minnis, new fourth grade teacher. A recent graduate of San Diego State with a B.A. degree, she belongs to Kappa Delta Pi and was the recipient of a Kappa Beta Nu scholarship. Mrs. Minnis did student teaching in Lemon Grove last year. Her father, George Dickinson, is president of the Classified Employees Association of the school district.

Mrs. Doris Huls, third grade teacher, is a graduate of San Jose State where she earned an A.B. degree. She belongs to CTA, NEA, and Kappa Delta Pi.

Miss Mary Emmons is a new fourth grade teacher. She graduated from Arizona State at Tempe with a B.A. degree and belonged to the Future Teachers of America before she joined the Lemon Grove faculty.

Sal Balderas, a graduate of Arizona State College at Flagstaff, is a fifth grade teacher at San Miguel. His background includes service in the U. S. Army and membership in Blue Key, Kappa Phi Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi.

James Dawson, a sixth grade teacher, obtained his B.A. degree at Northeastern State, Oklahoma, and also attended Oklahoma A and M, where he received his Master's degree. A former member of the U. S. Air Force, he also belongs to NEA, WEA, Phi Delta Kappa, and CTA. His wife, introduced to readers in a former edition, teaches at Vista La Mesa School.

Another new sixth grade teacher at San Miguel is Roger Townsend who completed his student teaching at the Lemon Grove Junior High last year. He holds a B.A. degree from the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, and did graduate work at San Diego State. He saw service in the U. S. Navy, formerly belonged to CSTA, and belongs to the F & A Masons.

Other members of the San Miguel faculty who are returning to Lemon Grove this term include Mrs. Winifred Stone and Miss Helen Shelton, kindergarten; Mrs. Josephine Dell, Mrs. Mary Reilly, and Mrs. Louise Trimmer, first grade; and Mrs. Dorothy Geissler, Mrs. Dorothy Kennedy, and Mrs. Agnes Rodges, second grade.

Line Smasher Sees Helix Win Over Hoover

Danny Spinazzola

By BOB TURNBULL

"Drive and determination plus your grades" are very important ingredients to well-mixed high school football players according to Spring Valley's gift to Helix High School's championship football team, Danny Spinazzola. Dan is first string fullback on the undefeated, untied, Metro League champs varsity squad.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Spinazzola, 8890 Jamacha Rd., Spring Valley, gave Dan his earthly debut on December 18, 1939 in Port Chester, New York. The Spinazzols (Anthony, Rose, Millie, Teresa, Mike and Danny) have been valley residents since nine years ago.

Seventeen-year-old Dan attended Spring Valley elementary schools and La Mesa Junior High School. Now in his senior year at Helix, Danny is ending an active four years in school offices and sports. Our five foot nine inch, 180 pound brown eyed and haired hero was freshman class vice-president, on the senior class ditch day committee, vice-president of Key club and a member of student council and Lettermen's club. In sports Dan has played football for four years, basketball in his frosh and sophomore years and track for four years. He has toiled on the varsity squad of pigskinners for two years, having played close behind such outstanding fullbacks as Karl Jordan and Rudy Rudzinski.

In the thinclad sport Dan flys the sprints and hurdles. In football No. 19 is presently second in the individual scoring race of the Metro League behind El Cajon's Joe Klucewich. Joe has 54, Danny has 48 points in league play. Dan has 54 points in all games played. He can also boast a 13.4 yards gained every time he packs the pigskin and holds the Highland record in rushing average per game. He has played in every game for the last two years.

The youngest member of this happy Italian tribe, Dan's older sisters graduated from (Millie) Grossmont and (Teresa, '52) Helix, while Mike graduated from Helix in '54 where he was ASB prexy in his senior year. A cute li'l thing named Julie Coats is Dan's hobby.

"If we're up for the game I'm pretty sure we can beat Hoover" states Dan excitedly. For it's this Friday night in Aztec Bowl that Helix and Hoover clash in the battle of the giants in the first round of the SCIF playoffs.

After than Danny wants to attend either Oregon or USC and major in P.E., with some day becoming a coach.

So it's wishing Spring Valley's bulldozing line-smasher, Danny Spinazzola, good luck in whatever field he enters. He can't fail with his philosophy of "drive and determination."
